Language Arts: Past Tense Verbs	Correct the sentences below so that the verb tenses are correct. Remember that in some cases, verb tenses can disagree. 1. Beyoncé is my favorite singer now, but when I was in fourth grade, I like Miley Cyrus. 2. I need to go to the dentist tomorrow, since I miss my appointment today. 3. When my dad was in middle school, he surfs with his friends every day after school.	Correct the paragraph below so that the verb tenses are correct. Remember that in some cases, verb tenses can disagree. The school dance was a total catastrophe. First, we dance to bad music. Then the photographer did not show up. After that, I will spill chocolate cake all over my pink dress. Then my best friend slips on the cake and twisted his ankle. What a nightmare!	Continue to work on your rough draft narrative. Correct the paragraph below so that the verb tenses are correct. Remember that in some cases, verb tenses can disagree. When I missed the layup, I will lose the basketball game for my team; my teammates were so cool about it though. They will tell me to stop beating myself up and that I would get a chance to redeem myself at the next game.	Write a paragraph describing an experience you or someone you know has had. Keep all the action in the past tense. (This should be completed on a separate piece of paper.)
